

WELCOME TO WELLNESS

Meet our newest providers

December 2024

SAM SCOTT DENTIST

Sam Scott, DMD, is our new full-time dentist at KWC, but he has been practicing locally for decades. Born locally, Dr. Scott earned his dentistry degree in 1988 from OHSU in Portland and immediately started his practice in Coos Bay.

Dr. Scott's philosophy of care is deeply patient and community-centered. He provides general dentistry including preventative and restorative care, oral surgery, endodontics, periodontal, denture service, crowns and bridges. Dr. Scott and the team are excited to serve you!

ALEXANDRIA JONES DENTAL THERAPIST

Alexandria Jones, Dental Therapist (DT), adds another layer of expertise to the the KWC Dental Clinic. She has 11 years of experience in Dental Assisting and in 2016, she began school in Alaska to become a Dental Therapist. She returned to Coos Bay a year ago to begin serving her Tribal community.

The most fulfilling aspect of her job is providing culturally appropriate care, helping patients feel heard, comfortable, and happy through their visit. Alexandria adds another layer of expertise in addition to our Dentist. She provides preventive services, oral exams, restorations, and crowns.

SEAN FINNEGAN PHYSICIAN ASSOCIATE

Sean Finnegan, PA, is a primary care provider at KWC-Coos Bay. He studied Health Promotion and Education while specializing in Emergency and Wilderness Medicine at the University of Utah. Sean has also worked as an Advanced Emergency Medical Technician and Medical Assistant. He earned his Master's in Physician Associate Studies from Midwestern University in Phoenix, Arizona.

Sean has focused on the importance of preventative and lifestyle medicine, fostering the mind-body connection, and the healing power of nature. He considers himself an excellent communicator and enjoys teamwork.

DANIELLE JENSEN PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Introducing Danielle Jensen to the KWC-Coos Bay. She will be providing services to KWC patients beginning in January 2025. She will be part of the expanded services that will be offered at the newly constructed Shisha Haws Rehabilitation and Fitness Center.

Physical Therapy can help relieve pain, help you move better, and strengthen weakened muscles. Danielle can help treat mobility conditions, offer pain management techniques, customized exercises, stretching programs and manual therapy (hands-on). Services will require consultation and provider referral.
